

PCPO is an organization which assists parent participation and cooperative preschools in providing high standards of education for children, parents, and teachers. We provide resource information to members on a variety of topics, offer educational meetings, hold informative conferences, and feature fun enrichment events.

PCPO would like you to be an Individual Member! Benefits of membership are:

- Reduced fees for PCPO's Annual Early Childhood Conference
- Advance mailings of all enrichment events
- Resource directory by request
- Access to our resource library

Membership fees are only $40 for a 12-month membership. Mail the form below to:
